Message from Head of School

It was great to see so many costumes for World Book Day, it was a great day in school. Thank you to our readers who joined us in the morning. We all appreciate the kind and supportive comments we have received post the Ofsted report being published (it is now live on the Ofsted website); it was great to see so many of you on Monday evening able to join us for a slice of cake to celebrate. Please do book your appointments for parent meetings for next week.
